The Proclamation of the Word

Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Toni Lett

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says ‘Let Jesus be cursed!’ and no one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us:

Thanks be to God

Psalm 36: 5-10

Rev. Nigel Bunce

Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens, and your faithfulness to the clouds.

Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; you save both mortals and beast, O Lord.

How priceless is your love, O God! Your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

They feast upon the abundance of your house; you give them drink from the river of your delights.

For with you is the well of life, and in your light we see light.

Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, and your favour to those who are true of heart.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Gospel Reading : Luke 4:1-13

Mayank Kapoor

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.’ Jesus answered him, ‘It is written, “One does not live by bread alone.” ’

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, ‘To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.’

Jesus answered him, ‘It is written, “Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.” ’

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, “He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you”, and “On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.” ’

Jesus answered him, ‘It is said, “Do not put the Lord your God to the test.” ’ When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Homily

Affirmation of Faith: Let us declare our faith in God.

We believe in God the Father, source of all life, source of all love, creator of the Universe, and all that is in it, including us.

We believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, fully human, fully divine, the only begotten son of the Father whose witness and sacrifice saves the Universe, and all that is in it, including us.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, God acting in the world, the voice of the prophets, who animates the Universe and all that is in it, including us. Amen. {Revised I/we; me/us}

Prayers of the People (stand, kneel or sit)

Confession (stand, kneel or sit)

Dear friends in Christ,

We remember our faults and our failings... and bring them to God.

Holy God, Maker of the skies above, lowly Christ, born amidst the growing earth, Spirit of Life, wind over flowing waters, in earth, in sea, in sky, you are there. O hidden mystery, Sun behind all suns, Soul behind all souls, in everything we touch, in every one we meet, your presence is around us, and we give you thanks.

But when we have not touched, but trampled your creation; when we have not met, but missed you in another, forgive us, and hear now our plea for mercy.

God, who calls you by name, hears your every prayer, forgives your sins, and holds you in love. In the name of the Holy Three, your sins are forgiven. Live in peace, and pray for me, a sinner. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts (standing)

Holy God, gracious and merciful, you bring forth food from the earth and nourish your whole creation. Turn our hearts toward those who hunger in any way, so that all may know your care; and prepare us now to feast on the bread of life, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

The Lord be with you (music by Bob and Lorraine Tadman)

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them to the Lord

Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

It is right to give our thanks and praise

Eternal God, source of all being, we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love. You call us into friendship with you and with one another to be your holy people, a sign of your presence in the world. When those we trust betray us, unfailingly you remain with us. When we injure others, you confront us in your love and call us to the paths of righteousness. You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone, whom you have always welcomed home, making the first last, and the last first. Therefore we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and singing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Blest is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, O Holy One: when Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope. When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your peoples' good. When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land. When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.

Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

At the right time you sent Jesus, your Anointed One, to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed. Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them. He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life. Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant between God and humanity. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Loving and Holy One, recalling Christ's death and resurrection, we offer you these gifts, longing for the bread of tomorrow and the wine of the age to come. Therefore we proclaim our hope.

Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Pour out your Spirit on these gifts that through them you may sustain us in our hunger for your peace. We hold before you all whose lives are marked by suffering, our sisters and brothers. When we are broken and cast aside, embrace us in your love.

Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O Source of all life, now and for ever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

(sung, Tadman)

Our Father, in heaven, hallowed be your name, your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us, this day, our daily bread, forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil for the Kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen, Amen, Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

(Fraction Sentence 6)

We break the bread of life, and that life is the light of the world.

God here among us, light in the midst of us, bring us to light and life.

The Gifts of God for the people of God

Thanks be to God

All seeking a relationship with God are invited to join us at the Lord's Table. Please do not intinct (dip the bread in the wine).

Communion Hymn: Yahweh I Know You Are Near

C113

Chorus: Yahweh, I know you are near, standing always at my side.

You guard me from the foe, and you lead me in ways everlasting.

1. Lord, you have searched my heart, and you know when I sit and when I stand.
Your hand is upon me protecting me from death, keeping me from harm.
Chorus
2. Where can I run from your love? If I climb to the heavens, you are there;
If I fly to the sunrise or sail beyond the sea, still I'd find you there. Chorus
3. You know my heart and its ways, you who formed me before I was born,
In the secret of darkness before I saw the sun, in my mother's womb. Chorus

4. Marvellous to me are your works; how profound are your thoughts, O Lord.
Even if I could count them, they number as the stars, you would still be there.
Chorus

Prayer after Communion (standing)

O God, we give you thanks that you have set before us this feast, the body and blood of your Son. By your Spirit strengthen us to serve all in need and to give ourselves away as bread for the hungry, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Doxology

(Sung twice, music by Bob Tadman)

Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.
